

Early Missionary Discoveries:
A Missionaries Focus Should Be on Opportunity Not Response

Acts 13: 42-51

Introduction:

- I. Obedience to the work of the Gospel supersedes the good or bad responses to their work.

- II. The opportunities that came were more important than the response.

- III. Joy in their lives was generated by the call to the work and escalated by the response and results.

- IV. What undergirded all these was the certainty that in all that was happening around them, God was in Sovereign control.
